5. Cancellation charge

Cancellation of all or part of the applied exhibition space will not be accepted.

However, if the notice of cancellation is made in writing and the reason for cancellation is deemed unavoidable, the cancellation will only be accepted upon the payment of the following charge:

From the date of "Confirmation of participation",

- Regardless of the cancellation date: 50% of the total participation fee
- After assignment of booth location: 100% of the total participation fee (and, if any, the reimbursement for the organiser's expenses caused by the cancellation)

This cancellation policy will also be applied to those exhibitors who find they are unable to obtain Japanese entry visas to attend the fair or unable to have their exhibits cleared through Japanese customs.

6. Booth allocation

The organiser will decide on booth location based on exhibit items and profile. The organiser may change the location when it is necessary after the notification to the exhibitor.

7. Subletting / exchanging of the booth space

Without the approval from the organiser, the exhibitor cannot sublet, sell, give all or part of the booth space to the third party nor exchange the aforementioned space with the third party. If an unapproved conduct is found, the participation in the fair may be deemed invalid.

8. Prohibited conducts of exhibitor

Exhibits, decoration and any other materials belonging to the exhibitor should be confined within the booth space. Promotional activities such as handing out of brochures and samples, questionnaire survey, demonstration are prohibited beyond his / her own applied booth space.

9. Indemnification

It is the exhibitor's liability in case his / her personnel or contractors cause damage to other exhibitors' stands, exhibits, organiser's facilities, exhibition hall facilities or visitors.

10. Insurance

The organiser recommends that the exhibitor covers insurance on exhibits against any and all incidents for the whole period from move-in to move-out.

11. Cancellation or postponement of the fair

The organiser may cancel or postpone the fair because of natural and man-made disasters, infectious disease, strike, war, terrorism or any other cause beyond the organisers control. The fair may also be postponed or canceled in the event that it is anticipated that the fair will fail to meet the desired objectives of exhibitors. In the case of cancellation, the participation fee balance will be deferred or refunded in accordance with the guidelines below. Fees other than participation fees such as promotional items and other items will be refunded.

[Deferral]

Exhibitors can request their participation fee to be carried forward to next fair. If there is a cost difference from the original participation fee, the difference will either be refunded based on the refund guidelines below, or the costs will be borne by the exhibitor. However if the fair is judged to fail to defer the fair, participation fee will be refunded.

[Refund]

After the deduction of necessary expenses, the participation fee will be refunded to the exhibitor in accordance with the time frames below.

Up to 30 days before first move in date: 70% refund

Between 7 to 29 days before the first move in date: 50% refund

Between 6 to 1 day before the first move in date: 30% refund

On or after the first move in date: no refund

12. Reduced duration of the fair

The organiser may shorten the opening times of the fair due to natural and man made disasters, infectious disease, strike, war, terrorism, or any other cause beyond the organiser's control. In this case, the exhibitor participation fee will not be refunded.

13. Move-in / out of the exhibits and stand construction

The details will be explained in the exhibitor manual which will be delivered three months prior to the fair.

14. Restoration of rented space to original condition

At the end of the fair, the exhibitor is responsible for returning the rented space and any rented installations in their original condition by the specified time. If the exhibitor does not carry out the necessary restoration, the organiser will charge the exhibitor the relevant cost. The organiser is not liable for damage or loss of exhibits or any other damage caused.

15. Visa application

A visa assistance service is available for exhibitors when the full payment of the participation fee and the application fee of the VISA are confirmed.

[Application fee of the VISA: JPY15,000(tax excluded / shipping fee included) per person]

The maximum number of persons to be applied for is 2 persons per booth. In case of reissuing and re-posting of invitation letters, additional fees (nonrefundable) will be charged. The organiser will not be responsible for rejected applications in any cases. If the exhibitor cancels participation due to a rejected visa application, a cancellation fee will be applied based on the terms stipulated in section 4 (Cancellation charge).

16. Customs clearance

The organiser will provide appropriate services to exhibitors for the procedure of customs clearance in Japan. However, the organiser will not accept any liability whatsoever even if the exhibits fail to be cleared.

17. Observance of disaster safety regulations

Exhibitors must conform to all disaster safety regulations in force at the exhibition site. If the organiser judges that the exhibitor is in breach of the regulations, the organiser has the right to refuse the exhibitor participation.

18. Sales during the fair

As the fair is held for trade purpose, open sales will not be permitted during the fair period.

19. Protection of the industrial property right

For products, services, technologies etc. for which the right of patent, utility model, design and trademark is to be protected, the exhibitor is requested to take necessary procedures for protection at the Japanese Patent Office prior to the fair. When making an application for participation, the exhibitor is also requested to confirm that his / her exhibit does not infringe on the right of the third party. The organiser will reserve the right to reject the participation in case of the infringement.

In addition, the organiser has the right to refuse participation of the exhibition and / or remove the exhibits in the following cases. In such cases, the participation fee will not be refunded.

[A product with the expired intellectual property rights]

In case original right holder continuously produces the product, the organiser shall respect the right of the original manufacturer. Thus, the product produced by third party will be prohibited or removed from the fair.

20. Exclusion of liability of organiser

The exhibitor agrees to follow this general terms & conditions, rules and regulations (including exhibitor manual) issued by the organiser. The organiser may add or amend regulations for smooth operations of the fair by written notice on the official fair website. The organiser may refuse the exhibitor who breaks the regulations.

When the organiser judges an exhibit is not suitable for the scope of the fair, the organiser may refuse such exhibit. In such case, participation fee will not be refunded.

The organiser will hire the security company and make his best effort for the safety of the exhibition hall during move-in / out and the fair period. However, the organiser is not liable for the damage or loss of the exhibits.

21. Agreement on the terms & conditions and other regulations

By a submission of the application form, exhibitors are recognised that they have agreed to comply with the terms & conditions stated above and all other regulations announced by the organiser.

22. Governing law

The exhibition contract shall be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Japan.

23. Jurisdiction

In case any disputes arise out of or in connection with the exhibition contract, the Tokyo District Court in Japan shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction.

[Visual and sound recordings] The organiser and its group companies are entitled to make, or to have made on their behalf, visual and sound recordings, as well as sketches of exhibition stands or individual exhibits, for the purposes of documentation or for their own publications. This also applies to any persons included in such recordings.
