4. Cancellation charge

Cancellation of all or part of the applied exhibition space will not be accepted.

However, if the notice of cancellation is made in writing and the reason for cancellation is deemed unavoidable, the cancellation will only be accepted upon the payment of the following charge:

■ From the date of "Confirmation of participation",

- Regardless of the cancellation date: 50% of the total participation fee
- After assignment of booth location: 100% of the total participation fee (and, if any, the reimbursement for the organiser's expenses caused by the cancellation)

This cancellation policy will also be applied to those exhibitors who find they are unable to obtain Japanese Entry Visas to attend the fair or unable to have their exhibits cleared through Japanese customs.

5. Booth allocation

The organiser will decide on booth location based on exhibit items, and profile.

The organiser may change the location when it is necessary after the notification to the exhibitor.

6. Subletting / exchanging of the booth space

Without the approval from the organiser, the exhibitor cannot sublet, sell, give all or part of the booth space to the third party nor exchange the aforementioned space with the third party. If an unapproved conduct is found, the participation in the fair may be deemed invalid.

7. Prohibited conducts of exhibitor

Exhibits, decoration and any other materials belonging to the exhibitor should be confined within the booth space. Promotional activities such as handing out of brochures and samples, questionnaire survey, demonstration are prohibited beyond his/her own applied booth space.

8. Indemnification

It is the exhibitor's liability in case his/her personnel or contractors cause damage to other exhibitors' stands, exhibits, organiser's facilities, exhibition hall facilities or visitors.

9. Insurance

The organiser recommends that the exhibitor cover insurance on exhibits against any and all incidents for the whole period from move-in to move-out.

10. Cancellation or postponement of the fair

[Natural and man-made disasters, etc.]

The organiser may cancel or postpone the fair because of natural and man-made disasters, disease occurrence and any other cause beyond control. In the case of cancellation, the remaining balance of participation fee after deduction of necessary expenses shall be refunded to the exhibitor; the organiser is not liable for any other damages and financial losses.

[Other reasons]

If the fair is judged to fail to have the desired success for the exhibitors, the organiser may postpone or cancel the fair. An appropriate explanation will be forwarded to the exhibitors two months prior to the fair date. In such case, the charges paid by the exhibitor will be returned without delay.

However, the organiser will not be liable for any compensation for the exhibitor's expenditure or damages incurred.

11. Move-in/out of the exhibits and stand construction

The details will be explained in the Exhibitor Manual which will be delivered two months prior the fair.

12. Visa application

The organiser will provide visa assistance service for exhibitors when the full payment of the participation fee is confirmed.

The maximum number of persons to be applied can be up to 2 persons per booth.

The organiser will not be responsible in the event of rejected application.

13. Customs clearance

The organiser will provide appropriate services to exhibitors for the procedure of customs clearance in Japan. However, the organiser will not accept any liability whatsoever even if the exhibits fail to be cleared.

14. Sales during the fair

As the fair is held for trade purpose, open sales will not be permitted during the fair period.

15. Protection of the industrial property right

For products, services, technologies and the like for which the right of patent, utility model, design and trademark is to be protected, the exhibitor is requested to take necessary procedures for protection at the Japanese Patent Office prior to the fair. When making an application for participation, the exhibitor is also requested to confirm that his/her exhibit does not infringe on the right of the third party. The organiser will reserve the right to reject the participation in case of the infringement.

In addition, the organiser has the right to refuse participation of the exhibition and/or remove the exhibits in following cases.

[A product with the expired intellectual property rights]

In case original right holder continuously produces the product, the organiser shall respect the right of the original manufacturer.

Thus, the product produced by third party will be prohibited or removed from the fair.

16. Exclusion of liability of organiser

The exhibitor agrees to observe this general terms of contract, rules and regulations (including exhibitor manual) issued by the organiser.

The organiser may add or amend regulations for the smooth operation of the fair by written notice or the exhibitor manual. The organiser may refuse the exhibitor who breaks the regulations. In such case, charges already paid are not refundable.

When the organiser judges an exhibit is not suitable for the scope of the fair, the organiser may refuse such exhibit.

The organiser will hire the security company and make his best effort for the safety of the exhibition hall during move in/out and the fair period.

However, the organiser is not liable for the damage or loss of the exhibits.

17. Agreement on the terms & conditions and other regulations

By a submission of the application form, exhibitors are recognised that they have agreed to comply with the terms & conditions stated above and all other regulations announced by the organiser.

18. Governing law

The exhibition contract shall be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Japan.

19. Jurisdiction

In case any disputes arise out of or in connection with the exhibition contract, the Tokyo District Court in Japan shall have the sole and exclusive jurisdiction.

[Visual and sound recordings]

The organiser and its group companies are entitled to make, or to have made on their behalf, visual and sound recordings, as well as sketches of exhibition stands or individual exhibits, for the purposes of documentation or for their own publications. This also applies to any persons included in such recordings.
